

Jacobs Joinery & Shopfitters

Developing New Relationships

April, 2007

Former Jacobs Joinery & Shopfitting employee, James Cosslett has taken his relationship with the company to a new level. After eight years with the company he has now opened his own business, Astrid Consulting Project Managers, and will continue to work with Jacobs Joinery as a consultant.

The company believes the new relationship will be beneficial to both parties and will allow them to offer the client an even better service. James knowledge of the shopfitting industry and his understanding of "The Jacobs Way" will be fully utilised as he manages jobs for clients such as Incredible Connection and The Pro Shop.
